George Billis Gallery is pleased to announce Andrew Woodward and his work at the New York location. This exhibition will run from May 26th to June 20th, 2015. The opening reception will be held at the George Billis Gallery located at 525 West 26th Street between 10th and 11th avenues on Thursday, May 28th, from 6-8 pm.

Speaking about his latest works, Woodward said the following, "My recent paintings explore the interactions of light and shadow cast across the buildings of Manhattan. I am fascinated by the minute intricacies that develop between colors and patterns interacting within each other. From intimate portraits of facades to vast cityscapes, my paintings celebrate New York City's rhythmic beauty."

Andrew Woodward's paintings interpret the energy of New York City through his bold use of vibrant color and pattern. Each of which plays a pivotal role in capturing the differing characteristics and spirit of the city.

The George Billis Gallery marks its 19th year in the Chelsea Art District and its sister gallery is located in the burgeoning gallery district of Culver City in Los Angeles.
